"When I started working on CatholicSingles.com, I truly wanted to fill a void and bring like-minded Catholics together. While finding my own match was a goal, I never would have guessed how that journey would unfold." says David Nevarez, President of Catholic Sites, Inc. "With so many wonderful couples having married with our help, it's very satisfying and a privilege to have my opportunity as well. As far as I know, CatholicSingles.com is one of the only dating sites to have married off its founder!"

David and his fiancée, Tricia Delaney, will be wed this July and are both excited about their future. This is the first marriage for both of them.
